About
Basecamp

Built for those who want the most out of their outdoor experience, Basecamp gets you closer to the adventure than you ever thought possible. Hit the slopes in search of fresh powder. Spend a week mountain biking deep in the forest. Bring along the climbing gear and tackle the crags. Basecamp is true to its name: It's your personal, mobile outpost – and it's ready for whatever adventure you have in mind.

- The 3" lift kit for additional ground clearance lets you go further afield in search of the best outdoor experiences.
- Easily towable by many mid-sized trucks and SUVs.
